

Artists Flea Market

(02/02/02)

& Open Studios at Islais Creek Arts Center

Saturday, February 2, 2002-10am to 5pm

Illinois Street between Marin and Islais Creek

Sellers-make reservations via e mail : david@islaiscreek.org

This event is a media and fund raiser in support of Local Artists, Shipyard Artists, Bay View Hunters Point, Dog Patch, Potrero Hill, Visistacion Valley, and other local communities in opposition to the Illinois Street Bridge, and all the issues of development that threaten our local communities.

The Art Flea Market will operate like any typical flea market:

1. Bring your own table, your own art, or flyers for local community issues.
2. Entry Donation: $3.00
3. Art Auction Seller Fees-60 spaces available at this time at $15 each
- 4 Please invite as many art patrons and local politicians and media as you like.
5. Have fun, save the arts and save the community in San Francisco and see you there.

The Art Flea Market is in support of the following environmental justice and community organizations:

CBE (Communities for a Better Environment) ,

GreenAction,

The Point- (Artists Community of the Naval Shipyard,)

CFC (Community First Coalition)

Hunters Point Naval Shipyard Activists,

Muwekma Ohlone Tribe,

Francisco DaCosta

MEC REsources,

Ujamma,

Marie Harrison,

SLUG (SF League of Urban Gardeners)

SFBV News, (San Francisco BayView News),

Potrero Hill Boosters Club

DNA,(DogPatch Neighborhood Association), and many more.

!!!This event is not for profit, for the purposes of educational, community and artists issues only!!!